

National Council of Jewish Women
Greater Philadelphia Section

invites you to take part in an extraordinary experience:

YOU BE THE JUDGE

- Take a free crash course on how our federal judiciary works, and how vital it is to our way of life.
- Hear the Honorable Marjorie O. Rendell, Senior Judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals, share her inside views.
- Play the part of a federal judge on a panel, and discuss and decide on an important case.
- Discover ways to ensure that lifetime appointments to the federal bench will be fair, independent, and diverse.

When: Tuesday, October 17, 2017, 6:45 pm to 9:00 pm

Where: Beth Sholom Congregation (the landmark synagogue on 611, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright) 8231 Old York Road, Elkins Park, PA 19027 — Fischman Auditorium
Light refreshments will be served.

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a 501(c)(3) grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action.

Donations toward NCJW's educational programs will be welcome at the event.

Register online by Oct. 13:

<https://goo.gl/forms/uJCMMMWPkrJpgfx22>

Questions? Call 215-302-3586 and leave a message. A member of NCJW will get back to you.

Co-Sponsors and Partners: Why Courts Matter-PA; Bucks County Women's Advocacy Coalition; Women's Law Project; League of Women Voters of Abington, Cheltenham, and Jenkintown; Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel; plus more to come