NCJW GREATER PHILADELPHIA SECTION JOINS RALLY FOR GUN SAFETY

"I am so proud of all the dedicated NCJW women who turned out throughout the Delaware Valley in support of gun safety..."

Barbara Nussbaum, President, NCJW Greater Philadelphia Section

Gun Safety Reform is, of course, about saving lives. In our state of Pennsylvania, PA Safe Caucus Co-Chair, Dan Frankel, notes that for years, gun reform proposals "continue to get bottled up in committee without a vote or even a hearing." Madeleine Dean, also Co-Chair of PA Safe Caucus, refers to gun violence as an "epidemic without action".

In the wake of the mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, NCJW CEO Nancy Kaufman in a press release on February 15, 2018 stated that "the carnage and innocent deaths of children will not stop until ending gun violence becomes a litmus test issue for those running for office, and it is up to all of us to make that happen. NCJW will continue to do its part".

To support gun safety BE AN INFORMED VOTER! The chart below is a record of incumbent legislative candidates in the PA General Assembly and their NRA ratings. Also listed are their challengers. You can check your legislator's ratings at <https://votesmart.org/>

District #	County	Incumbent	NRA Rating	Challenger
HOUSE
146	Montgomery	Tom Quigley	93%	Joe Ciresi
147	Montgomery	Marcy Toepel	93%	Josh Camson
151	Montgomery	Todd Stephens	57%	Sara Johnson Rothman
155	Chester	Becky Corbin	79%	Danielle Friel Otten
162	Delaware	Nick Miccarelli	57%	Dave Deloso
SENATE
6	Bucks	Robert "Tommy" Tomlinson	B+	Tina Davis
12	Montgomery/Bucks	Stewart Greenleaf*	B-	Maria Collett
24	Montgomery/Bucks/Berks	Bob Mensch	A	Linda Fields
44	Montgomery/Chester/Berks	John Rafferty	A	Katie Much

*Stewart Greenleaf listed in the chart is actually Stewart Greenleaf, Jr. son of retiring 12th District state Senator Stewart Greenleaf.

President's Message

Recently, I became somewhat nostalgic as I looked back in time to the year 1948, 70 years ago. Yes, it was the year in which I was born and am grateful to have reached that milestone. I began to reflect on some interesting facts about that year. You might not know that the average Income was $2,936.00 and that the cost of Gasoline was only 16 cents a gallon? Eggs were 23 cents a dozen and Swanson TV Dinners became a "norm" in the American household!

But.... more importantly, 1948 means so much to me because David Ben-Gurion, declared "the establishment of a Jewish state in Eretz-Israel, to be known as the State of Israel", the first Jewish state in 2,000 years! How incredible it is that in just the short time span of 70 years, this tiny nation has successfully absorbed immigrants from all over the world, fought several wars and survived against all odds, and now is one of the world's leading nations for Innovation and Technology. Each time I visit Israel, I am amazed at its cultural and educational growth as well.

NCJW is and always has done its work in Israel by empowering Israeli women to advocate for a robust civil society just as we do in the US. For more than 70 years, NCJW has been supporting women, children and families throughout Israeli society regardless of ethnicity, religion and economic status. We advocate for the equal status of women in the face of religious fundamentalism; women's political leadership; women's economic empowerment; LGBTQ rights; and educational opportunities for all women in Israel. We created the first women's gender studies program at Tel Aviv University and throughout the year, NCJW makes grants to address urgent grantee requests in line with NCJW's priorities. As in the US, NCJW has laid the groundwork for important social change efforts in the society.

Yes, even though Israel is strong and we are proud of the growth that has taken place over 70 years, we still have work to do there. Please stay tuned to our Bulletin and website to learn about the continuing work we do to promote social change in Israeli society. Please also join our local community here in Philadelphia as we "salute" and celebrate Israel's 70th birthday! Yes, 1948 was a special year! HAPPY BIRTHDAY ISRAEL! B'Shalom!

Barbara Nussbaum

Updates on legislative news that impact all of us and the people we serve:

NEW ADVOCACY COMMITTEE FORMED

- Lynne Jacobs, our NCJW National Board Director and Pennsylvania Policy Advocate and I have notified all those who expressed interest in joining our new advocacy committee of our first meeting on April 27 2-4pm at the Abington Public Library, 1030 Old York Rd. Abington, PA
- One of our major tasks to be undertaken by our committee along with other coalition partners will be informing the general public of who their PA state and U.S. representative candidates are in the redrawn congressional districts. Note: Unlike your U.S. representatives your state reps and state senators' districts remain the same. Therefore, it is vital that voters are aware of the candidates for federal offices and who are the incumbents and challengers for seats in our state Senate and House.
- If you are interested in joining our Advocacy Committee, please contact Linda Lempert at 215-884-5906 or by e-mail at lindalempert@verizon.net or contact Lynne Jacobs at ljacobs816@gmail.com.

BILLS TO FURTHER PROTECT DOMESTIC ABUSE VICTIMS

This past week the Pennsylvania State Senate unanimously passed two bills that further protect victims of domestic violence: SB501 and SB 919. These two bills now move to the PA House for consideration.

SB 501 requires anyone under a PFA (Protection from Abuse Order) to surrender firearms to a sheriff or judge within 48 hours of receiving the PFA. The previous law which was much more lenient toward the abuser.

SB 919 allows victims of domestic abuse who live in public housing to be relocated to another unit to ensure their safety.

Please call your PA state senator to thank him/her for their bi-partisan effort to protect victims of domestic abuse.

EFFORTS TO COMBAT GERRYMANDERING IN PA

There are two routes to counter partisan gerrymandering in Pennsylvania: one is through a lawsuit in the Pennsylvania state court system and the other is through amending the PA state constitution to be able to change the redistricting from the PA state legislature to a non-partisan citizens' committee, with no legislators permitted on this committee to redraw both congressional and PA state district lines.

While the lawsuit brought by the PA League of Women Voters has been successful, resulting in the new congressional districts being drawn, these new districts will only hold for the 2018 primary and November elections if the method of redrawing voting districts is not changed according to the PA state constitution before the 2020 census.

Please keep in mind that that the new congressional districts are only for the U.S. Congress, not the Pennsylvania state districts represented by our legislators in Harrisburg. Again, our state legislators' in Harrisburg voting district are still drawn by these same state legislators themselves.

Fair Districts PA an arm of the League of Women Voters of PA has been a non-partisan group that has endeavored to pass two bills in the PA state legislature which would amend the state constitution to allow a non-legislative citizens' commission to redraw all districts on a more permanent basis after the 2020 census. Just a few days ago, HB722, which intended to establish a citizens commission to redraw both congressional and state districts, was completely gutted by a vote of the House state government committee to amend the original bill and which completely altered the wording of the bill. This amendment was passed on strictly partisan lines. There will most likely be many protest rallies. Please contact FairDistrictsPA at fairdistrictspa.com or call (800)313-1597 to find out how to help to pass these bills with their original intent.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMUNITY SERVICE - VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Reminder - READERS WANTED FOR OUR HOLOCAUST ESSAY CONTEST

This year four schools will be participating in our Holocaust Essay Contest: Springfield Township Middle School, Upper Dublin Middle School, Community Academy of Philadelphia (a charter school) and Paxon Hollow Middle School.
