NOW MORE THAN EVER OUR PERSONAL GIVING CAMPAIGN NEEDS YOU

Personal Giving is the means by which our Section supports the NCJW National Organization. I know that you are all aware and as worried as I am about the current threats to all of us: the probable overturning of Roe vs. Wade, the increasingly harsh anti-abortion laws being passed in states, gun violence, hate crimes, conspiracy theories and other threats to the wellbeing of women, children, families; and, our democracy itself. Our National office and officers have the clout to MAKE OUR VOICES HEARD in the halls of Congress and in state legislatures.

Each year, National establishes a contribution goal for our Section. We work in partnership with National and they speak for us. Your donations help us to meet this goal without taking monies from our treasury, which we depend on to fund our local projects. National supports us in our advocacy for the principles we hold dear in the areas of women's rights and family values. Our leaders are recognized and well respected in Washington and throughout the country.

As is our custom, I will be making the appeal for personal giving donations at our closing luncheon. Please come prepared to do your part at that time- bring your checks or credit card information. If you are unable to attend the luncheon, you will receive a solicitation from me in the mail and you will have the opportunity to participate in that way. Thanks for your generous and continuing support of our wonderful section.

Sandy Fryer
Personal Giving Chair

RAFFLES ARE HERE

The sale of these tickets will enable our NCJW section to continue and expand the support we give to women, children and families in our effort to improve their lives here and in Israel. Please join us in this, our biggest fundraising effort of the year. I thank you in advance for your participation. For more information, call Ann at

National Council of Jewish Women's

JEWISH FUND FOR ABORTION ACCESS

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH NATIONAL ABORTION FEDERATION

We know that many in the Jewish community are looking for a way to help those who provide direct care. That's why we created the Jewish Fund for Abortion Access in partnership with the National Abortion Federation (NAF), a national organization that represents, serves, and supports abortion providers in delivering patient-centered, evidence-based care.

NAF is dedicated to ensuring individuals have the information and resources they need when they seek to terminate a pregnancy. The fund through NCJW will help with their emergency relief efforts in three ways:

1. Funding the largest hotline in the country, which will help individuals learn what they need based on where they live to access abortions. After reaching out to the hotline, the person calling is assigned a case manager who will help them through their journey.
2. Funding travel over state lines for those who need it.
3. Funding abortions at NAF approved clinics for those who need it.

Donations can be made at: ncjw.org/abortionfund.

Alert

A Petition for Bipartisanship

In the PA House and Senate, committee chairs elected by a tiny fraction of PA voters can block bills with strong bipartisan support. Legislative leaders can ignore bills passed with bipartisan support from committee or the other chamber. Mechanisms used in most other states to ensure bipartisan bills get a vote don't exist in the PA legislature.

Much-needed solutions, introduced session after session, never get a vote.

By any measure, Pennsylvania is one of the least effective, most expensive full-time legislatures in the country. In the average session, less than 7% of bills introduced get a final vote. Many of the bills that do pass just name bridges or roads. Meanwhile, issues of great importance to all PA voters stay locked in committee because committee chairs "aren't interested," or because their major donors prefer the status quo.

It's time to change this! It's time to fix the rules so bipartisan solutions can get a vote in Harrisburg. Until we fix this structural flaw in our legislative process, our legislators can never fully represent us.

Sign the petition now to ask your legislators to support rules that guarantee bipartisan solutions get a vote.

https://actionnetwork.org/petitions/fix-harrisburg/?source=direct_link&

Spread the word! Our legislators need to put partisan bickering aside and pass meaningful laws that benefit all PA residents.

Thanks for joining the fight.

FROM OUR MEMBERS

Our Advocacy Vice-President at the May 3 Abortion Rights Rally in Doylestown.

Liz Downing was quoted in an article in the Jewish Exponent following the rally.

Liz Downing, now the vice president of advocacy of the National Council of Jewish Women of the Greater Philadelphia Section, had friends who had back-alley abortions in the same era. The use of coat hangers — now a symbol used by abortion access advocates — left some friends injured and others unable to bear children.

According to Downing, this wasn't unusual: "People knew people knew people."

Getting To Know More About You

Perhaps, the words “taste” and “culture” in our NCJW Section’s Taste of Culture Program piqued Pat Taglioline’s interest in joining my sister, Lee Tonik, and I on a tour of the Woodmere Art Museum’s exhibit of women painters, followed by lunch at a Chinese restaurant, Cin Cin. Our warm and welcoming members cinched Pat’s decision to become a member.

Actually, Pat personifies taste and culture. Her exceptional culinary skills encompass so much: her embrace of her Italian heritage, her seeing food as an aspect of nurturing family and friend relationships, a means to express her concepts of design, honed as a college major in photography, via her table settings and food presentations. NCJW members and friends of Pat, Zelda Stern and Tammy Herzbach’s comments about Pat, reflect their experience of her culinary skills as an expression of who she is as a person. Pat “dishes up” her savory meals in her kitchen, reminiscent of Tuscany, in her home which she renovated in Doylestown.

*Pat lives in Doylestown, close to the Mercer Museum. Pat is a sponsor of Movies at the Mercer. In partnership with the County Theatre, there is a movie every month beginning in May with the last showing in October. If anyone is interested in learning more, feel free to reach out to Pat.

Here's an extra treat. Last week, Pat stopped by our home and left us with some fabulous cookies. My husband, Mal asked her for the recipe and he's made them twice since. You can find the original recipe at <https://www.loveandoliveoil.com/2020/08/confetti-amaretti-cookies.html>

Here's Mal's fast and easy version of Confetti Amaretti Cookies

(Dry Ingredients)

- 2 1/4 cups (200g) almond flour
- 7/8 cup (175g) granulated sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup confetti sequin sprinkles

- 2 large egg whites (about 65 grams)
- 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon almond extract

plus confectioners' sugar, as needed

Preheat oven to 300°

Stack two matching, heavyweight, light to medium colored cookie sheets one inside the other (stacking two cookie sheets together keeps the bottoms of the cookies from getting too brown). Line with parchment paper or a silicone baking mat.

Mix the dry ingredients together.

In the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the whisk attachment, whisk egg whites and lemon juice until they hold soft peaks.

Whisk in 1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Replace the whisk with a bread hook, add the dry ingredients and combine everything.

Lightly dust your hands with powdered sugar.

Use a small cookie scoop to portion dough into 1-inch balls.

Roll into a smooth ball, then roll in powdered sugar.

Arrange on parchment or silicon-lined baking sheets, leaving 1 inch of space between cookies.

Bake for about 30 minutes until tops are cracked and bottoms are just barely golden (if you are NOT using doubled cookie sheets your cookies will brown much quicker, and will likely need less time, so watch them closely).
