

Greater Philadelphia Section of the
National Council of Jewish Women
GRANT APPLICATION FORM

National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children and families and by safeguarding individual rights. The Greater Philadelphia Section of NCJW focuses on Advocacy, Education, and Hands-on Community Service.

To that end, NCJW considers making small grants not to exceed $500 to charitable institutions with IRC 501(c)(3) status. Organizations whose work is in line with our mission are encouraged to apply.

The accompanying form details the information to be provided by the organization when requesting a grant. In summary, this information includes the organization's details, proof of IRC 501(c)(3) status, and a description of the project/program for which support is sought. When a grant is made, it is incumbent upon the organization to provide a progress report at the midpoint, and a final report at the completion of the project/program, summarizing what has been accomplished and how the grant was used. Additionally, the applicant agrees to cite the grantor organization, National Council of Jewish Women, Greater Philadelphia Section, in any bulletins, pamphlets or websites.
